You are invited to attend the 2010 Beal Bank Awards Banquet

---

What: The Awards Banquet for Beal Bank Dallas Regional Science and Engineering Fair

When: Wednesday, March 24, 2010.

Program Noon ~ 2:00 p.m. Check-in from 10.30 a.m.

Where: Hughes-Trigg Student Center (Promenade Ballroom lower level)
3140 Dyer St, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, TX 75205

Who: First-, Second-, and Third-place science category winners plus Special Award winners are invited, along with the teacher named on the student's original online Fair registration.

We regret that science category and Special Award Honorable Mentions cannot be accommodated due to space restrictions.

Each student winner may bring up to two guests, subject to space availability.

Cost: Winning students and teachers named on the original fair registration attend at no charge. Additional guests of students may attend for $15 per person.

How to make a reservation:

Students and teachers reserve separately. No tickets will be distributed. Sign-up at the fair or online at drsef.org. If you sign up online and need to pay, print out your online confirmation and mail in with your check. Please make checks payable to DRSEF. Online reservations will be honored in the order we receive checks, subject to space availability.

A list of confirmed banquet participants will be periodically updated at drsef.org
Please email us if you have questions.

Final deadline for check receipt at SMU: Friday, March 19, 2010.

Southern Methodist University will be running a ½ hour guided tour of the campus prior to the banquet at 11:00 a.m.
